THURSDAY, AUGUST 2, 1770.

MR. TIMOTHY, July 28, 1770.

MY Fellow-Citizens having entertained a ſtrong Suſpicion, of my being the INFORMER who cauſed the Diſmiſſion of the Captain of the Watch Company Yeſterday: I think myſelf happy in having Recourſe to your Preſs, to undeceive them, by laying before the Public, the following circumſtantial State of Facts.

Returning home late from where I had ſupped Sunday the 15th of June, I met with ſome Acquaintances at Mr. Dillon's Corner, entered into Converſation with them, ordered a Glaſs of Punch, and Chairs being brought, ſat down a while. This happened about 12 o'Clock. Some Time after, the Captain of the Watch came by, dreſſed as a Sailor; aſking him the Reaſon? he anſwered, that he frequently went out diſguiſed in that Manner, to ſee if the Watchmen did their Duty, and if he found any aſleep to take their Arms from them. I applauded his Vigilance, and aſked him to drink, which he did, and went away. Soon after, the Captain of the Watch returned in another Dreſs, and being aſked, drank more Punch. One of the Company then obſerved, without ſuſpecting the Occaſion, that there was an unuſual Number of People walking for that Time of Night. About 3 o'Clock, I took a Walk with one of my Friends; in about half an Hour returned to Dillon's Corner, obſerved an Effigy up, ordered the Waiter to bring out a Candle, view'd it, and ſaw the Captain of the Watch near the Pump. Returned to Dillon's, converſed a while there, afterwards went home with one of the Gentlemen, and came back to Dillon's; but the Door being juſt their ſhut, and the Day beginning to break, I retired to my own Houſe. Monday I did not ſtir out till about 7 in the Evening, my uſual Time of taking a Walk. Tueſday and Wedneſday the ſame; and had no particular Converſation with any Perſon upon the Subject on either of thoſe Days, except that related the foregoing Circumſtances to a Friend, who told me he heard, that I had put up the Effigy. On Thurſday received a Note of Compliment from the Hon. Col. BEALE (who repreſented the Commander in Chief, then out of Town) deſiring I would call at his Houſe for a few Minutes. From the Nature of my public Situation, I naturally imagined he wanted me upon ſome Buſineſs; accordingly I waited upon him. Some few Queſtions were aſked of me, but particularly "whether it was broad Day-Light" when I ſaw the Captain of the Watch near the Effigy; and, whether I had ſeen him interfere in the putting up or pulling down the Effigy? To the firſt Queſtion, I candidly anſwered, it was not; to the ſecond, that I did not ſee him interfere, upon which I was diſmiſſed. Sometime after, I was informed, that the Subject had been agitated in Council, and that my Name was mentioned, as knowing ſomething of the Matter. I told the Gentleman, I knew nothing material, and begg'd he would endeavour to prevent my being called before that Board, which he promiſed. No more did I hear of it till Yeſterday, 9 o'Clock, when the Meſſenger [illegible] the Governor, in Council, at 10, as I imagined, upon ſome Buſineſs of my Office. When I came to the Council-Chamber, before I entered, was informed why I had been ſummoned: I immediately enquired for the Gentleman, who had promiſed to get me excuſed attending upon ſuch an Occaſion, but he had not then come. I there had the ſame Queſtions put to me, as at Col. Beale's, and returned the ſame Anſwers, which were adjudged nothing to the Purpoſe, nor any Ground to ſupport the Charge laid before the Governor in Council, by a Gentleman of the Board; but the ſubſequent Matters (which were ſaid to be coming to the Point) alledged by a Gentleman of the Board, viz. That his verbal and written Orders, for pulling down, ſtripping, and ſecuring the Effigy, and regaining it, when taken away, had been DISREGARDED: that it had not even been demanded, when carried by the Watch-Houſe, and the whole Guard was ſet, who were ready (as he ſaid) to reſcue it immediately, had Orders been given, which he could prove, by the Evidence of one of the Watch. Upon THESE Charges, the Officers of the Watch were adjudged guilty of great Neglect and Diſobedience of Orders, and for theſe Reaſons caſhiered, to which my Anſwers, no way material, in no wiſe contributed; as I was examined, only to prove, that it was not broad Day-Light when I laſt ſaw the Captain of the Watch ſtanding by the Effigy.

Upon the whole, I flatter myſelf it clearly appears, that I have, by no Means, merited the odious Appellation of a public Informer; that in both Inſtances, where my Attendance was required, it was involuntary, not knowing the Occaſion, but imagining it was on Buſineſs in Courſe of my Office; and that I did not directly, or indirectly, give any Information in the Caſe. JOHN BREMAR.

LONDON, MAY 18.

LAST Wedneſday an humble Addreſs, Remonſtrance and Petition of the free Burgeſſes of the town and county of Newcaſtle-upon-Tyne was preſented to his Majeſty at St. James's, by Sir Francis Blake Delaval, Knight of the Bath. The following is a copy thereof:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY,

The humble ADDRESS, REMONSTRANCE and PETITION of the free Burgeſſes of the town and county of NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the free Burgeſſes of the town and county of Newcaſtle-upon-Tyne, emulous of following the example of the city of London, notwithſtanding the independency of its firſt magiſtrate, and of the two public-ſpirited ſheriffs, has given ſuch particular offence to your miniſters, think ourſelves called upon to repeat our unwearied application to your Majeſty for redreſs of unexampled grievances.

We cannot but feel with the much-injured county of Middleſex for the wound given to them, to us, and to the conſtitution, and warmly animated by the late noble behaviour of the independent electors of Weſtminſter, whoſe actions have beſt contradicted the fallacious language of your miniſters, when they confidently aſſured your Majeſty, that only ſome few miſguided perſons have complained of their determination—by the houſe of commons, but (who nevertheleſs found themſelves under a neceſſity of beholding, with ſilent confuſion, a virtuous remonſtrant rewarded by the grateful tribute of a free people.

We point out this picture of the people with the more ſatisfaction, that your Majeſty, notwithſtanding miſrepreſentations, may give us credit for being a majority, equally warm in the true ſervice of our country and of your Majeſty, and equally out of the reach of that baleful influence, which ſome way or other has hitherto ſucceeded, we fear, in concealing from your Majeſty the wiſhes of an affectionate but afflicted people.

We therefore humbly preſume to ſolicit your Majeſty to exert that conſtitutional authority, which the laws have veſted in you for the benefit of your ſubjects, by diſſolving the preſent parliament, and moſt earneſtly implore you to remove for ever from your counſels thoſe miniſters, who, not content with having violated the freedom of election without doors, have adviſed your Majeſty to diſmiſs from your ſervice the firſt officer of the law for his faithful endeavours to ſupport the liberty and conſtitution of his country; and this meaſure is ſtill the more afflicting, as our laſt hopes amongſt your Majeſty's ſervants were placed in his acknowledged integrity and ability, from whence we flattered ourſelves the truth might reach your Majeſty's ear in ſpite of every confederacy againſt it.

The grateful acclamations of your whole people ſo [illegible] miniſtry if you would deign to relieve the afflictions of millions of your ſubjects by the diſmiſſion of theſe pernicious counſellors.

For while the affairs of this great nation are, by an overruling fatality, placed in the incapable and mercenary hands of men, who, under the ſpecious title of miniſters, are colluſively transferring from one to the other the excluſive right of ſporting with their country, we have every calamity to dread both at home and abroad, as well from their want of experience as from their want of integrity.——
